NF CHIEFS VISIT LIBYA

A TOP LEVEL National Front delegation has returned from a fact-finding trip to Libya. Three senior NF officials were invited to visit the country by the Libyan Peace Committee which aims to spread awareness of the injustice and horror of the U.S. terror bombing of Libya.

NF Directorate members Nick Griffin, Pat Harrington and Derek Holland flew in to the main airport near Tripoli late on 17th September and left four days later. They were taken on an extensive tour of the area bombed by American war planes. And they took an in-depth look at the way in which modern development in industry and retailing is being carried out in keeping with the Third Position ideology of Muammar Qathafi's Green Book.

The delegation saw large parts of the capital city and its surroundings. They were at all times free to go wherever they wanted. They were free to talk to anyone they wished and, in spite of the obvious language difficulties, found the people there friendly, sincere and contented.

STUNNED

NF members are used to mass media lies and distortions, but even our delegation were stunned at the difference between the prosperous and peaceful country they saw with their own eyes, and the ramshackle State of half-starved masses and fanatics which the lying press and T.V. of the so-called 'free' West constantly portray.

We will try to give an idea of what we actually saw, and what this controversial country is really like, in the centre pages of this issue, and in forthcoming issues of Nationalism Today.

And most important of all, we will continue our work to show that Libya is the victim, not the perpetrator, of State Terrorism.

HOME AFFAIRS, ANALYSIS &amp; COMMENT

BURSTING THE HOUSE PRICE BUBBLE - THE NF ANSWER

AS NFN units campaign locally against attacks on the Green Belt and other problems caused by rocketing house prices, the NF's Directorate policy 'think tank' has been studying the issue in order to present an effective nationalist analysis and solution.

Its initial recommendations and conclusions fall into three main areas.

1. The bankers' usury swindle means that house prices have inflation built into them. And once prices start rising, people jump onto the 'get rich quick' bandwagon. Others rush to borrow more than they can afford in order to buy a house before prices go right out of reach.

Except for the speculators, rapidly rising house prices do no one any good. Homeowners might enjoy the idea of being rich, but they have to live somewhere and if their home has gone up in price, so has any solely to the elected delegates of the Peoples' government. The NF would campaign to persuade the population that some of the new credit/money needed by the economy each year should be put into circulation in the form of interest free loans to first time home buyers.

2. Land hoarding in the big cities has created an artificial shortage of land for building and redevelopment. Both private speculators and local councils find it gives them enormous profit or power to 'sit' on land which could provide new homes - without eating into the Green Belt.

come under MDC1. A plot in a street of fine old buildings might be rated MDC3 (allowing small scale, sympathetically designed residential development). A field in a typical farming area might be graded MDC5 (for standard arable agricultural production); while an ancient water meadow Site of Special Scientific Interest would be classed as MDC6, which would allow only low intensity pasture use which would preserve it for future generations.

Each Maximum Development Category would attract a different level of rates or land tax. This would be charged not according to the actual use of the land at the time, but according to its MDC. So a weed covered building plot in a town centre of land in East Anglia. At present it is owned by a 'Grain Baron' who douses it with deadly chemicals in order to produce, with as little labour as possible, cereal crops to add to the grain mountain. If it was farmed as part of a labour intensive smallholding, it would produce several times more food of a far higher quality. If such land was given the MDC of fertile intensively cropped land, the 'Grain Baron' would either have to switch over to more productive and healthier techniques, or sell the land to someone who would, and would therefore be able to afford to pay the higher MDC land tax.

Such graded taxation of all land would ensure its most efficient and desirable use. It would also bring in massive extra government revenue. If some of this was used to finance a big cut in Income Tax, we would be well on the way to creating a system with no room for speculators, but which really encouraged people to work hard - and to let them enjoy the fruits of that labour.

The first of those fruits would be a decent home at a sensible price.

3. Economy and political centralization in the South East is the third factor behind the house price spiral. The 'Big Bang' free for all for City parasites; the Centralized State and Civil Service around Westminster; the economic drift towards the centre of the EEC; the neglect of the regions of England and the other nations of our islands - all these things have combined to push up property prices in London and the South East to an unhealthy peak.

The NF's policy of replacing absentee share ownership with direct ownership, control and responsibility by the workforce will render the Stock Market obsolete and undesirable. When we also put a stop to currency speculation and to the corrupt power of the banks, the resulting reverse 'Big Bang' will remove the pressure on house prices from overpaid City of London parasites.

Withdrawal from the EEC - the corrupt 'Europe of the Merchants' - and the Modern farming methods are destroying the fertility of the land and poisoning our people. We must make it possible and desirable for people to 'return to the land' as smallholders thus breaking up the massive farming combines.

replacement of the Westminster State by a federation of locally governed British nations and regions, will also eliminate at a stroke much of the pressure on the living space of London and the Home Counties.

Finally, the National Revolutionary drive to Return To The Land will entail a phased but massive shift of population out of the cities and over-crowded South East, and back to the exploited arable lands of East Anglia and to the under-developed and depopulated uplands of the Celtic nations. This is a subject which NFN intends to cover in much greater depth in due course, but at this stage it should simply be noted that this too will tend to bring house prices in the South East back under control.

So there you have it. While others simply moan about the problem, or cash-in on a short term and unsustainable boom, the National Front sets about working out a positive long term solution.

End the bankers' swindle. Introduce a land tax. Reverse the drift to the South East. We know what needs to be done, so now we must build the political machine capable of doing it.

This demolished factory site in Liverpool has stood like this for years. So much for the 'Jobs and Housing' slogan of the city's Militant council. Land hoarding is as beneficial to Socialists as well as the right, but people remain homeless.

other they would have to buy if they sold it. In the meantime, they just have to pay out more for insurance.

And there is no guarantee that the prices will rise forever. But if the price bubble bursts, owners of property bought at inflated prices could end up trying to pay off loans far greater than the real value of their homes.

The NF is pledged to removing from the banks the 'right' to create the nations' credit as an interest bearing debt. This right will belong

We believe that this could be overcome by introducing a graduated development rate on all land. The unworkable and unjust Poll Tax would be replaced by this new rating system.

All land will be assessed and given a Maximum Development Category (MDC). This will be related to the present planning laws and would set the most intensive and valuable use to which any particular plot could be put.

So, for example, a site for a large office complex would would not be treated as an under developed MDC5 or 6, but as if it was already fully developed as an MDC1. Thus the owner could not afford to let it be idle for speculative purposes, but would have to develop it or sell it to somebody who would.

In urban areas, this would release a huge amount of building land onto the market, which would greatly reduce pressure on the Green Belt. And it would have a beneficial effect on the country as well.

Take, for example, an acre best use of our national resources.

SANITY IN FINANCE

The right to create the credit needed by the economy must belong to the people's government. The banks, which have usurped this right, must be stripped of their unjust gains and power. The National Debt is based on usury and must be repudiated.

RESPECT FOR NATURE

We hold the environment in trust for future generations. Pollution of the land, sea and air, and of the gene pool through radiation, is a betrayal of that trust.

POPULAR RULE

Parliamentary representation is a fraud. Party rule is a cloak for the dictatorship of vested interests and media bosses. Government must be in the hands of the people themselves, through new information technology, and the election of delegates to carry out their wishes. Power must be devolved to the lowest possible level.

THE ARMED PEOPLE

The freedoms given by these principles must be defended through armed neutrality, with well - equipped national defence forces involving the entire adult population. Power, wealth and arms in the hands of the people!

REVOLUTION NOT REFORM

These changes cannot be brought about by tinkering within the System, or by relying on the System's own institutions, such as parliament, schools or the courts. They can only spring from a National Revolution. This revolution must begin in the hearts of individuals, then spread by their example to involve whole communities in revolutionary structures such as alternative councils and schools, neighbourhood patrols and self-help groups. Once we cease to depend on the institutions of the old State, it will be swept aside.

THE THIRD WAY

The growth of these ideas in nation after nation shows that a new force is rising in the world for the 21st century. Leaving behind the sterile hatreds of Capitalism and Communism, this Third Way offers a real future for all our peoples. We urge all those who agree with these principles to join with us in the struggle to build the National Front - the Movement of the Future.

NATIONAL FREEDOM

Britain is a family of Nations - England, Wales, Scotland, Kernow, Mannin, Eire and Ulster - linked by blood and history. The peoples of all nations have an inalienable right to self-determination and to preserve their native cultures and traditions. We look forward to the day when Eire voluntarily rejoins the future federated British family of nations.

RACIAL SEPARATION

Race is the main determining factor in nationality. Racially mixed societies cannot form one nation and are therefore unstable.

No one race is 'superior' to others, but they are all different. Racial integration threatens all races. Humane repatriation is better for us all than endless repression and racial violence.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

The nation is a great family. Every member of our national family has the absolute right to care at the nation's expense when young, sick or old. There must be equal opportunity for all, but unearned privilege for none.

WELL DISTRIBUTED PROPERTY

The realistic opportunity to own one's own home and place of work is the right of all our people. Direct ownership of the means of production and distribution is essential for individual freedom, for family stability and for the

MENTIONED IN 'DISPATCHES'

'Disciples of Chaos' was the title chosen for the attempted Channel 4 hatchet job on the NF, broadcast as a 'Dispatches' report on Wednesday October 5th 1988.

The obvious intention of the programme makers was to present the NF as "terrorists" and people out to "destroy society as we know it". Let's have a look at the lies put forward to 'prove' that the NF is "terrorist".

LIE NUMBER ONE; The programme stated that a farm in Swanley, Kent, was used to train members to conduct "night ambushes" and "strip hand guns".

TRUTH; The NF has never organized such training. The farm was used for picnics and for five-a-side football competitions which were open to non-members.

LIE NUMBER TWO; Ray Hill, a former high ranking BNP member who worked as a "Searchlight mole", claimed that "they (ie us) have a cliché they constantly quote" to the effect that out of the ashes will arise the Phoenix. "The Phoenix is National Socialism, the ashes society" droned Hill.

TRUTH; The cliché belongs to Hill, a man who is not qualified to speak about the present NF or its leadership, since the last time he was connected with the NF in any way was as far back as 1979. The NF does not make such comments - they belong to Mr. Hill, a sad individual who has to make a living one supposes.

LIE NUMBER THREE; Ray Hill claimed that the sacred task of the 'political soldier' was to "train for military confrontation", "train for terrorism".

TRUTH; The term 'Political Soldier' is taken from a booklet of the same name by Derek Holland. The booklet contains a long condemnation of terrorism and exhorts cadres to use only moral means. The sacred task of the Political Soldier is to engage in political, cultural and spiritual struggle for Social Justice and National Freedom.

LIE NUMBER FOUR; Stills of the Bologna bombing were used and interviews with Italian lawyers were broadcast which feebly suggested a connection with Roberto Fiore, a young fugitive from Italian injustice, and through him an NF connection to the incident.

TRUTH; As the programme makers were forced to admit, Mr. Fiore was "not wanted", "not charged" and "not accused" of any part in the Bologna bombing. The use of the Bologna bombing without establishing any link with the NF shows the programme makers up for what they are.

LIE NUMBER FIVE; Guilt by association was used to suggest that because Roberto Fiore had been convicted in absentia for "terrorist" offences in Italy and the NF leaders knew him, the NF must be terrorist as well.

TRUTH; Roberto is an innocent man persecuted for his political views and activities by a hostile Italian State. NF leaders are proud to know him and call him a comrade. He has not been convicted for terrorist offences but for 'subversive association', a vague political offence under Italian law.

LIE NUMBER SIX; Ray Hill claimed that NF leader Derek Holland had incited members to go out "paki bashing" and "incited riots".

TRUTH; All those who know of Derek's work with Black and Asian Separatists and his faith in non-confrontational methods, will know what nonsense this is. Mr. Hill's real complaint is that Derek Holland denounced him as an agent provocateur many years before he was revealed in his true guise.

LIE NUMBER SEVEN; Ian Stuart (Donaldson) was paid by Gerry Gable to attack the NF on the smear programme. He claimed that money that should have promoted the White Noise music club had been channelled into NF political work instead. This, said Stuart, was why he had left White Noise to set up a rival organization to the Front's musical wing.

TRUTH; White Noise existed to provide funds for the NF. That is one reason the NF had formed it, invested money in it and why its members worked on a voluntary basis to organize concerts and promote it. Stuart ignored the fact that White Noise members knew this. Ian Stuart left because he begrudged the NF its share of the profits from concerts, the remainder of which went to the bands concerned. He has not produced any records with this money or done anything political - he has just lined his own pockets.

LIE NUMBER EIGHT; Ray Hill stated "they will now turn to terrorism".

TRUTH; We are winning politically! Why should we "turn" to anything? Does not the fact that Mr. Hill says "turn" imply an admission that we are not terrorists now? We will continue our political, cultural and economic struggle. We condemn terrorism. As for the allegation about "destroying society as we know it" - what's so good about it that we should keep it as it is?

Many other points could have been mentioned. For a full criticism send a £1 postal order, payable to Nationalist Publications, to PO Box 228, Manor Park, London, E12.

DISCLAIMER

THE NATIONAL DIRECTORATE of the NATIONAL FRONT wishes to make it clear that the Flag and Vanguard are not National Front Publications. They do not reflect NF policy or strategy and do not speak for the National Front.

They are produced by a small clique of reactionaries, thieves and drunks, expelled from the NF in 1986. Officials are reminded that both publications and their editors are proscribed. Members of the public are warned that the NF cannot be held responsible for money lost on subscriptions to the Flag and Vanguard when they cease publication.

WORLD AFFAIRS, ANALYSIS & COMMENT

THE OUTLAWING OF USURY

The City of London - a major international centre of usury, a crime against humanity. Europe must re-join the Islamic world in outlawing this disease.

USURY - the charging of interest on loans - has always been forbidden by Traditional Christian teaching, but unfortunately the vast majority of modern 'Christian' leaders have found it convenient to ignore this fact and to accept the bankers' swindle.

But in the Islamic world a growing number of people do not and as a result devout Muslims from Cairo to Karachi are becoming the focal point for health and sanity in international finance.

Iran, Pakistan and the Sudan now require that all domestic banking uses Islamic methods. While in Egypt and the Gulf States, Islamic banks are growing quickly, often being able to offer depositors a better return than conventional Capitalist banks.

TEN YEARS OLD

The Islamic economic movement responsible is barely ten years old, but its institutions now hold between $12 billion to $20 billion. Abdullah Abolfatah, acting general manager of the Bahrain-based Al Baraka Islamic Investment Bank, explains the difference between conventional and Islamic finance like this:

"If you come to me and say you want a loan to buy a car, I will not give it to you. But if you come to me and say you want to buy a car, I will buy the car and sell it to you over a period of time and at a profit".

This technique allows the bank to earn money just as any middleman can do, in order to operate and pay wages, but does not try to suggest that money has a value or life of its own which would justify charging interest on the loan. The Arabic term for it is murabaha. It has been applied to a wide range of ventures, including funding large-scale trade deals, such as a $100 million rice export deal to Pakistan.

Some financiers have tried to justify sticking to the old method by claiming that there is a difference between loan-shark usury and 'reasonable' interest charges. But Islamic scholars maintain that the condemnation of usury in the Koran prohibits all forms of interest.

The only just way to earn profits, they say, is to put money to work through a risk-sharing venture. Idle cash must not be a source of guaranteed income or profit.

BETTER FOR SOCIETY

"I started my professional life as a commercial banker. But I believe the Islamic way of doing business, or whatever you want to call it, is better for society."

says Sammi Hamoud, head of the Islamic Financial Consultation Centre.

He points out that interest-based economic systems help concentrate wealth in the hands of a minority. But his own economic principles lead to a wider allocation of wealth, because the cost of capital isn't driven up by interest rates and so it is easier for ordinary folk to raise funds to start their own businesses.

SIMILAR CONCLUSIONS

These ideas may now be spreading through the Islamic world, but they are not new.

A wide range of the most talented political and economic thinkers in the West have, in the European spirit, proposed solutions to the evil of usury.

G.K. Chesterton, Hilaire Belloc, C.H. Douglas, Fr. Dennis Fahey and many more - all have been ignored by the mass media which is prostituted to usury-based Capitalism.

They, in their day, picked up and raised the banner of sane and honest finance once again. And the National Front holds it high today. That is why we, like anyone else who condemns our corrupt system of finance is so viciously attacked by the mass media.

A TALE OF TWO MINES

THE right-wing government of South Africa has for years used the Black people of the region in what is tantamount to slavery - in the mines; as butlers; nannies, and as lavatory attendants. Indeed, we believe that it's about time that the Whites of South Africa learned how to answer their own door bells; wipe their own babies bums and cleaned their own toilets. But one group of Black workers - eight thousand in all - who went to Mozambique to escape the tyranny of the right, have found life no better with the Communists.

They have been shipped off to East Germany to dig for brown coal in Open Cast pits north-east of Leipzig. And they have not only found themselves as worse off, but have found themselves to be unwelcome as far as the locals are concerned. For the East German workers resent the use of cheap labour to undermine their own wages.

And now it has been reported that the East German government intend to ship fifty thousand Vietnamese to the 'Democratic' Republic. They will be sent to work in East German factories and service industries next year.

So we see that once again Blacks, Whites and Asians find themselves no better off under a Capitalist or Communist regime. Both Evil doctrines deny respect for culture, race and tradition. Both regimes are sides of the same coin. You give them your money and you take their choice.

A life of slavery in this South African mine or a life of slavery in an East German mine? There is a Third Way!

THE SHAME AND THE

TORY WAR CRIME

MARGARET THATCHER is a war criminal, guilty of aiding and abetting mass murder by her terrorist friend Ronald Reagan! Anyone who thinks this statement is untrue or extreme should look long and hard at the pictures on this page.

They give just a glimpse of the devastation and human suffering wrought by English based U.S. airforce jets attacking civilian targets in Libya early in the morning of 15th April 1986.

Reagan said that the attack was in retaliation for Libyan sponsored anti-American terrorism and claimed to have the 'evidence' to prove it. But no such evidence has ever been produced, and as we revealed in our last issue, even the Washington Post has admitted that the whole thing was a fabrication.

The real reason for the attack was that Qathafi is the most powerful champion of the Third Position - the only ideology capable of breaking down the global stranglehold of US dollar imperialism. Not for the first time, the Yank government carried out mass murder in the name of peace and freedom, when the real aim was to make the world safe for General Motors, IBM and Wall Street.

AGAINST OUR WISHES

Against the wishes of the vast majority of the British peoples, Thatcher gave permission for the use of US bases in England to launch the attack, thereby putting us all in the front line.

Other European states gave way to the Yanks as well, though none with the bootlicking pleasure of 'our' own parliamentary pigmies. Only France refused to join in the slaughter, by banning the US jets from flying over her territory.

An American Intelligence officer who defected to the USSR earlier this year has claimed that the Yanks deliberately targetted the French embassy in Tripoli. Perhaps the intention was to 'teach the French a lesson', or perhaps it was just inaccurate bombing, but the French embassy was devastated even though it was in a purely residential area.

The French staff there were warned in advance and had evacuated the building. It still lies in ruins today, next to the site of an ordinary home which was completely flattened, killing the entire sleeping family.

WRECKED US JETS

F1-11 jets also struck at Benghazi, where the 'military targets' hit included a school and a home for mentally retarded children. All in all, over 50 people were killed in Tripoli and several hundred died in Benghazi. While the Yanks denied losing any planes, the pieces of wrecked US jets heaped outside Qathafi's ruined house provide evidence to the contrary.

But that can provide little consolation to the bereaved and the victims of this official State terrorism. And in itself it is not enough to prevent Reagan and Thatcher doing it again. The only way to end that danger is to make it politically too damaging.

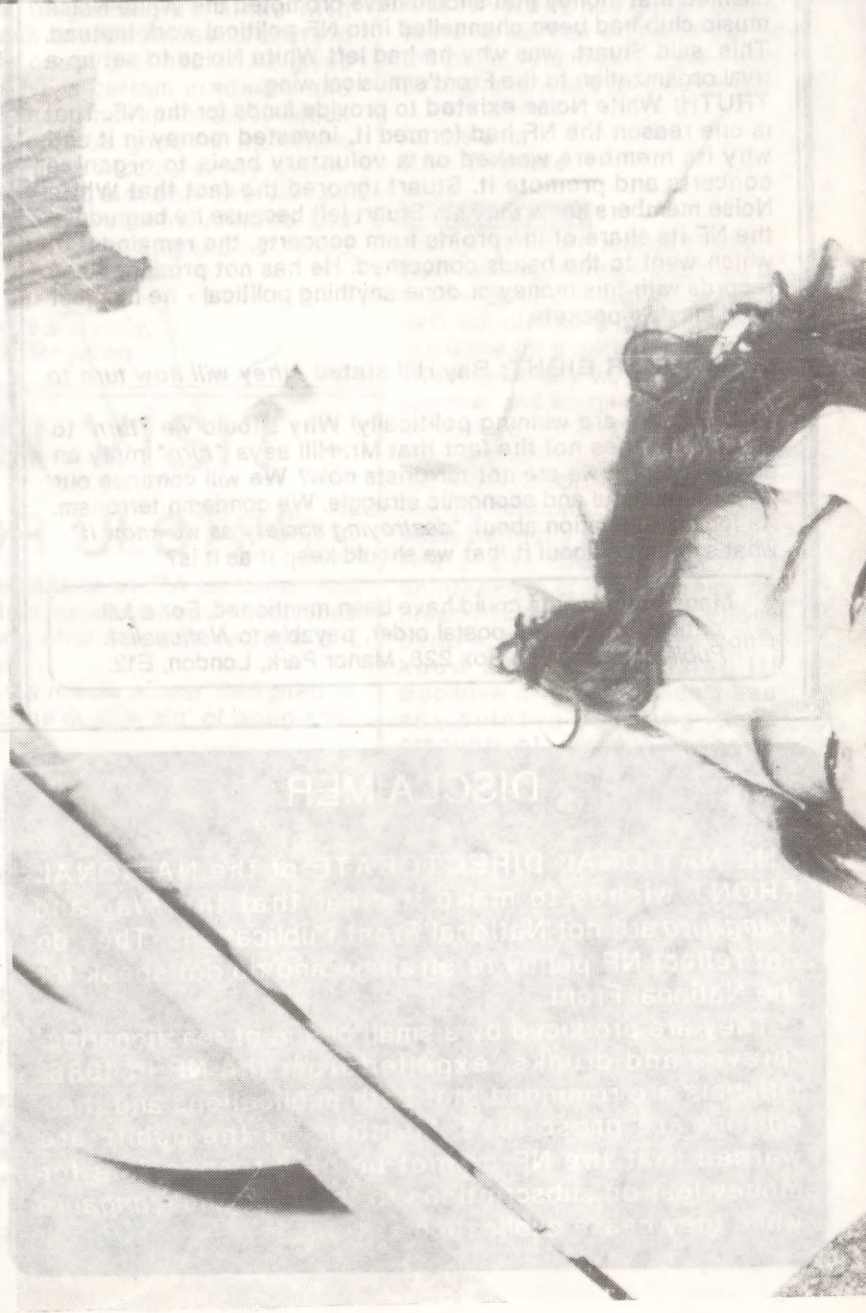

In Britain, that means taking every possibility to awaken the massive majority of ordinary people who oppose our involvement in any conflict which does not directly involve a threat to our national interests.

As the half-senile actor in the White House looks for a way to end his Presidency with a 'bang', our demand for Armed Neutrality must be heard loud and clear. Keep Britain out of foreign wars!

Below: A crowd gathers around the remains of one of the Yank terror bombs. Upon seeing the immensity of these terror weapons, directed against innocent families and children, we can only thank God that the death and destruction was not far worse.

MURDER

WHILE most of the Yank terror bombs smashed the homes and lives of ordinary citizens, a few did end up near the supposed target, Colonel Muammer Qathafi.

He was not in a 'barracks', as the mass media claimed. His family home was a house among other married quarters in a purely residential area.

Today it stands exactly as it did at the end of the murderous raid, after the broken body of his little 18 month old adopted daughter was carried away, and when two of his young sons had been rushed critically injured to hospital.

No attempt has been made to add to the impact of a visit there by the use of heart-rending photos, explanatory guides, videos or any of the other propaganda media which would no doubt have sprung up at such a site were it in Britain or America. The only post-bombing additions are in the court-yard behind the shattered house: a stark sculpture depicts a hand reaching up into the sky and crushing a US jet.

And to make the point even more clear, the wreckage of several Yank planes shot down nearby, including two pilots' helmets, has been dumped near its base, together with the delivery casings of the deadly anti-personnel cluster bombs which they had dropped from what they thought was a safe height.

SHUDDERS

Broken glass crunches underfoot as you walk through splintered doors into the shattered family home. Paintings hang from the walls at crazy angles, their canvases slashed to shreds by flying glass. One shudders at the thought of the injuries inflicted on the children sleeping just below them.

The children's rooms are the saddest. A little pile of junior school exercise books lie by a torn satchel, the wind through gaping windows flutters their pages to reveal childish drawings. A broken doll rests by a tiny white shoe. And all this was done in our name, in a mythical fight 'against' terrorism!

If the government didn't like the news reports sent at the time by Kate Adie in Tripoli, Thatcher was lucky that they didn't begin to bring out the brutality and human tragedy of the attack.

Before leaving the broken roof and shrapnel pock-marked walls of Qathafi's shattered family home, the NF delegation left the following message in the large visitors' book in the entrance hall:

The destruction of this family home was a crime against humanity and against all moral principles. It is a horrible example of State terrorism - the reality of hypocritical 'western democracy'. Although deeply ashamed that this was carried out from our islands and in our name, we wish to remind the world that the peoples of the British family of nations overwhelmingly opposed the attack on Libya and her people.

We pledge to do all in our power to ensure that our peoples do not forget this savage attack, nor the fact that Thatcher and Reagan are war criminals who must be brought to justice and who will be condemned by history.

18th September 1988.

"MAD DOGS AND ENGLISHMEN..."

TWENTY YEARS AGO, Libya was one of the poorest countries in the world. But while Britain's oil wealth has been shipped abroad by Big Business or squandered supporting millions needlessly thrown out of work, Libya's has been invested at home. Education and health care are comprehensive and free. The main road network is better than Britain's. Industry and agriculture are striving towards national self-sufficiency in essential goods. Housing is provided rent free.

The NF delegation packed a wide range of fact finding tours into the short visit. After the shame and anger of the bomb sites, it was a relief to visit constructive ventures. These included the Institute for the study of the Green Book, with its fine library covering an amazing range of languages including Chinese as well as Polish, French, German, Spanish and English.

DIFFERENCES

We spent hours with the manager of one of the five big retail supermarkets in Tripoli, discussing co-operative theory and practice, and trying to grasp the differences created by a system which allows everyone to make a living, but no one to make a profit at the expense of others. These issues will be discussed in greater depth in the forthcoming issue of Nationalism Today. Suffice it here to say that the "wide shortage of basic goods and foodstuffs" talked about by the western press is yet another lie.

NT will also cover our visit to the largest bus and truck factory in Libya, which is about to be converted into a co-operative. It wasn't a propaganda perfect model of organizational efficiency. If this writer had produced welds like some of those seen, during his eighteen month stint in agricultural engineering, it would have ended rather sooner! But the vehicles were clearly roadworthy and sturdy. We saw plenty of them in use on the roads. It had a relaxed atmosphere and the managing director only gets three times the wage of the shopfloor workers. It's not like that at Dagenham!

Wherever we went people were friendly, particularly upon learning where we were from. Ordinary folk are not blamed for the atrocities carried out in our name by Thatcher and Reagan. The Ghanains being trained as a form of mutually beneficial foreign aid were particularly pleased to be able to try out their generally better English.

The country has refused to embark on an exploitative and culturally harmful tourism programme. While our hotel had a swimming pool, there seemed to be slight surprise when we ventured out into it in the heat of the early afternoon sun. At this time of the day all sensible Libyans take a nap after getting up very early in the morning.

Talking with ordinary people was difficult but interesting to all of us. For example, it seemed from looking at prices and average wages that their standard of living was a little less than ours (he means a little less than the general average throughout this country, not that of the paupers of the volunteer NFN staff - Ed). But Libyans have the advantage of either living rent free in state built houses, or can get a loan to build their own. Many do so, borrowing an average of £50,000.

Since usury is forbidden by the Koran, they do not pay interest on this. Instead they pay an additional once-off fee of £3,500. So the total they pay over 25 years is £53,500. When we explained that compound interest charged would mean a total repayment of about £150,000 on the same size loan in Britain, they could scarcely believe it.

In between such visits and talks, we also held a number of political discussions on matters of mutual interest.

ANCIENT CITY

Finally, we were taken on a two hour drive to Sabrata Magna, one of five ancient Roman cities in Libya. Owing to torrential rain en route, our car arrived late. An elderly local man, with one eye, a rifle and a Green Book, refused to let us in. What followed could not have happened if Libya was the terror-ridden society portrayed by the media. Our guide was a senior official but the old man was adamant. He pushed the gate shut with a heavy clang on the wing of the car and the driver joined in the argument.

Eventually, because we had come such a long way, he agreed to let us see the site, but would still not open the museum. It didn't matter at all. The site of the city is unbelievable. Acres of ruined streets, houses, temples, and public baths stretch right down to the sea shore. Beautiful dolphins grace mosaic floors partly covered by blowing sand. Little lizards scurry over ancient alters.

We reached the massive amphitheatre, almost fully intact, as a thunderstorm came overhead. Huge marble columns form the backdrop and every whisper on stage can be heard on the huge stone terraces where so many audiences sat.

Brilliant white forks of lightning flashed from the black clouds and rain lashed down to lag the dust. The atmosphere was unforgettable. The whole scene was a powerful reminder that all the temporal works of man must fade and crumble. All that remains in this world is the fame of noble deeds and the value of our ideals for future generations. Humbled, but inspired, we turned for home.

WHY THE OPENNESS?

NF News is sure that every regular reader will now be visualizing what the prostitute mass media will make of the fact that senior NF officials have visited Libya. Lurid headlines about 'international terror plots' are well-nigh inevitable. Closer attention from our opponents is bound to follow ranging from MI5 and Special Branch (more correctly known as the political secret police) to the Zionist lobby and the Marxist sects they 'wind up' to do their dirty work. Questions will probably be asked in the House of Commons.

Given this inevitable extra pressure, some of our supporters may wonder why it was decided to publicize the visit to Libya, rather than keeping it a secret. The answer is simple: We have nothing to hide. The National Front is a political organization. We intend to create from this a moral force, and a beacon to inspire our youth to work for the regeneration of our nations. And in our Quest for Victory we know that we must add a cultural dimension to our political struggle.

POPULAR ALTERNATIVES

But whatever our enemies will say we are not terrorists. We never will become terrorists. The National Front condemns terrorism unreservedly on both tactical and moral grounds. And even if terror could work as a means, it would corrupt the ends beyond all recognition. A Distributist society based on popular participation can only be built by involving large numbers of ordinary people in the building of alternative popular institutions to duplicate and supercede the institutions of the corrupt State. Such a society could not possibly result from the terrorist struggle of a necessarily small number of secretive experts. Even if they could 'win' and form a new State, it would inevitably take on the character of their revolutionary organization. Their victorious 'experts' would end up running everything. The victory, after all, would be theirs, not the people's.

The Cadres of the National Revolutionary Movement must, it is true, be an elite. But their purpose is to inspire and convert, not to bully or terrorize, and to urge the broader mass of sympathizers and the public at large to get involved and do things for themselves. Our revolution must be based on popular participation and love, not terrorism and hatred.

WHY LIBYA?

This is why the National Front is particularly interested in Libya. Several states, many nations and numerous organizations have our support in their struggles against a whole variety of Evils, from American imperialism to its Soviet twin, from forced integration to pollution. But there are far fewer cases where we can support and learn from the positive actions of a state. Libya is one such case. The National Front is committed to building an economic system based on direct ownership and co-operation. Libya is actually developing an entire economy based upon the ideal of partners not wage earners. The National Front is determined to replace the fraud of parliamentary representation with a system of direct popular rule. The Libyan move to Popular Congresses at street and factory level is the most promising experiment ever made in this field.

In short, Libya is a Third Position nation and the National Front has become, independently, a Third Position movement. Our common ideology is the great, and indeed the only, threat to global Capitalism in the next century. That is why Libya, like the National Front, is subjected to a continuous barrage of groundless smears and hatred.

TRUTH AND PRINCIPLE

The Third Position is also based upon Truth and principle. For us to take the easy way out and remain silent while those who share our ideals and are innocent of any crime are attacked, would make a mockery of our stand for Truth, and would be a betrayal of our principles. That is why we stand by our comrades and friends of the Italian Terza Posizione. And it is why NFN is pleased to be able to publicise further the horror and injustice of Reagan and Thatcher's acts of terrorism against the people of Libya.

There is also a sound practical reason for supporting other Third Positionists. Our enemies - Capitalism, Communism, Zionism and the hatred they have spawned - operate on a global scale. There is only one way that this can be combatted effectively, and that means that our struggle must be global too. The National Revolution must be international in scope in order to defeat an international system.

MOBILITY 2000 CAMPAIGN

Dear NFN,

Wirral NF have launched a campaign to ensure the quality of treatment for the elderly and disabled in this area. The campaign is called 'MOBILITY 2000' and is being carried out in two phases.

Phase 1 sees a petition being circulated around shops and businesses, and carried onto the streets for the public to sign. The petition calls upon the council to appoint a special officer to look after the needs of the elderly and disabled, to ensure they have the same opportunities as the able-bodied to go about their business. We want to see more ramps, more lifts, more safety rails to hold onto.

In addition we want to see the council spending its money on ensuring walking surfaces are flat and even, and in funding special 'mobility buses' to assist the elderly and disabled to reach the parts of town too far from bus routes or car parks.

Following Phase 1, we will be launching a special leaflet to summarise our aims and call for all-party agreement on these aims.

Phase 2 will be the launching of a series of 'stunts' using a wheelchair and a 'disabled' person to show the public at large the difficulties faced every day by these people.

As we all know, present day councils are 'overly' concerned with ethnic minorities and South Africa. The idea of this campaign is to highlight the failure of these councils to provide the necessary facilities and funding for other ratepayers and residents. Hopefully the end of the initial phases may see us moving towards setting up an independent 'watchdog' to look after the disabled and elderly - someone who can campaign for THEM the way that trendy lefties campaign for Mandela and other things equally relevant to our people!

Other units should adopt this subject - the elderly and disabled are our people and we have a duty to them.

Wirral NF is also assisting the local CPR in Saturday pickets of ABTA shops in Birkenhead as well as maintaining our regular weekend sales pitch.

Yours in comradeship,
D.O. Wirral NF.

Editorial Comment

NFN would like to remind the Cadres of the NF that it is their duty to get involved in self-help and campaigning groups. Apart from the obvious benefits to our communities, units will also gain valuable experience and knowledge from such work.

WE CAN BEAT THE POLL TAX

Dear NFN,

A legion of anti-poll tax groups are springing up in every community throughout the British Isles, and especially in Scotland where the collectors have already being going about their dirty work for some time now. The Labour party have just predictably turned their backs on our people yet again by taking a firm stand against a campaign of mass non-payment and collection. And this gives us our chance to get well established in the campaign that already has mass backing in every community. The NF must be seen to be at the forefront of this nationwide campaign instead of leaving it to the Reds. I went on a massive anti-poll tax rally in Glasgow last month and the Red papersellers and placards, which they hand out to anyone who can hold one, were prominent as usual but there was no sign of the NF. Even the SNP were there!

Over 2 million people in Scotland have already stated that they're not going to pay the tax in a recent STV poll. If the government actually manage to collect the information they need what are they going to do, put 2 million people in overcrowded prisons that are already bursting at the seams? I said if they manage to collect the information because we have already seen poll-tax collectors being regularly alleviated of their forms and ritual bonfires being started all over the place with the government forms as fuel!

In solidarity,
J.S. Glasgow.

A WORLD-WIDE THIRD POSITION

Dear Sir,

I've supported the NF for many years through thick and thin, but I can honestly say that I've never been as excited about the prospects for the movement as I am at the present time. Never before has the NF been in such a position as we are at the moment with strong links developing on a world-wide scale with various nationalist groups. From Blacks and Indians to Palestinians and Third Positionists in Nicaragua, and not forgetting our links with Black and Muslim separatists in this country of course, it gives the NF a certain credence and international respectability which can only be good for us. When such links become widely known, never again can the NF be viewed as narrow minded and bigoted 'little Englanders'. Keep up the good work.

Yours sincerely,
T.S. Royston

THE LIBYAN VISIT - THE CASE FOR ULSTER

COLONEL QATHAFI's welcome condemnation of IRA terrorism and imperialism (discussed at length in our last issue) obviously heartened the NF delegation, which arrived not long after Libya denied that it is supplying the IRA with funds or explosives.

It is increasingly obvious that this is a media smear designed to discredit a country which has committed the double 'sin' of being anti-Zionist as well as Third Position.

In view of the new Libyan statement recommending discussion and reconciliation as the way forward in the island of Ireland, the NF delegation was particularly pleased to take the opportunity to explain why we support an independent Ulster. And we were pleased to note that the officials in question listened carefully as we put Ulster's case.

PEACEFUL PERSUASION

We believe that many of the groups around the world who are inclined to sympathize with PIRA do so because they do not know the true facts of the Ulster situation. And we are sure that it is better to take every opportunity for peaceful persuasion through reasoned debate, than to leave people in the Fenian camp through ignorance.

It is certainly more likely to be effective than the Thatcher policy of blowing people to pieces, or the Paisley policy of ineffectual ranting about events 300 years ago. We are proud to have been able to put across the case for Ulster in Libya, just as we have already been doing for several years in Europe.

It is obviously the only sensible approach, so the questions for ordinary folk in Ulster to answer are these: Why have the old loyalist leadership not done it before? After such abject failure, why should anyone follow them? And now that they have failed, what are YOU going to do to help build a real alternative - the National Front of Ulster.

NF POLL TAX CAMPAIGN

Dear NFN,

Why hasn't the NF made its position clear and started campaigning against the poll tax yet? I've only seen one article in NF News concerning it so far and I find it impossible to believe that the movement isn't going to organize against it.

There's already an anti-poll tax union on my estate which has got a lot of support. There's no reason why we should tag along and leave the organization against this despicable Tory plan to the Reds.

I've managed to get on the committee of our poll tax union, which wasn't difficult. It's the same as most things, people are willing but they haven't got any organizational experience which leaves a vacuum that the NF has got to fill. If there isn't any organized poll tax resistance in other areas it's up to our people to form and direct the resistance. And NF News has got to get in there so we can organize round the paper and draw people to us through our stand on the poll tax.

R.M. Thetford.

Editorial reply

Guilty! In future issues readers and militants will see much more coverage of the poll tax in NFN as it will without a doubt become the issue on a nationwide scale. The reason why we haven't gone hammer and tongs against it yet is twofold. Firstly, there's the simple reason of lack of space, but more importantly, although the implications of the tax have been perfectly clear ever since the plans for it were first announced, it hasn't been so clear exactly how it will effect people. Even the Tories don't know and keep revising it! Because of this we didn't see any point in devoting large amounts of valuable space to attacking a vague outline.

But we agree that it is imperative that all of our people get involved with and/or start organizing existing poll tax resistance or form their own groups from the start.

THE FRONT LINE

ENTER THE DRAGON

THE Welsh dragon, in the form of Ffrynt Cenedlaethol Cymru, has well and truly entered the political arena in that beautiful country, to the dismay of establishment politicians and their lackeys.

For in a vain attempt to stop the rapid growth and expansion of the Welsh NF, a bus load of mainly English students, who call themselves the South Wales 'Anti Fascist Action', have taken to touring South Wales and holding demonstrations in order to intimidate our young activists whilst selling NFN in town centres.

In their latest escapade between lectures, the English students of 'SWAFA' turned up in Merthyr Tydfil town centre, handing out leaflets with a number of lies relating to the NF on them.

But not to be outdone FfC Cymru members and supporters in Merthyr had come prepared with their own bilingual leaflet exposing the English students.

SWAFA had even advertized their march and demonstration in the South Wales Echo in a desperate attempt to attract some local interest. It failed dismally! The forty or so English students had to be content with marching and demonstrating with themselves as the locals completely ignored them!

Well, perhaps they didn't totally ignore the well-bred students of SWAFA. Because quite a few copies of NF News were sold to people who were sick to the teeth of hearing SWAFA's inane rantings, following which the poor dears packed up and went back to college.

FfC Cymru quickly issued the local press and media with a reply to SWAFA's lies which put across the following points:

1. The FfC/NF do not stand for racism and hate. We stand for racial awareness, which we believe is for the good of all races. The real race-haters are those like 'SWAFA' who want to destroy the races of this world by forced intergration.

2. It is a lie that wherever the FfC/NF have formed a branch that there has been an upsurge in violence of any kind - including racial violence. We seek an end to race hatred by giving the youth a political and non-violent solution.

3. The FfC/NF do not support M. Le Pen or his political party the FN. Basically his party is a Zionist/Freemason/Capitalist outfit and as such we abhor the FN. The FN themselves "strenuously deny any links with the British National Front".

4. FfC/NF members and supporters do not 'attack' Black people and anyone that does will be expelled immediately. Can the 'Anti Fascist Action' say the same for their members that attack FfC/NF members and supporters on and off FfC/NF activities.

5. Lastly, Ffrynt Cenedlaethol Cymru/National Front are in no way Fascist. Our principles of Distributism, Participatory Democracy, National Freedom and Social Justice are the exact opposite of Fascism's Corporate State, which is similar to the system desired by the Stalinist 'SWAFA'.

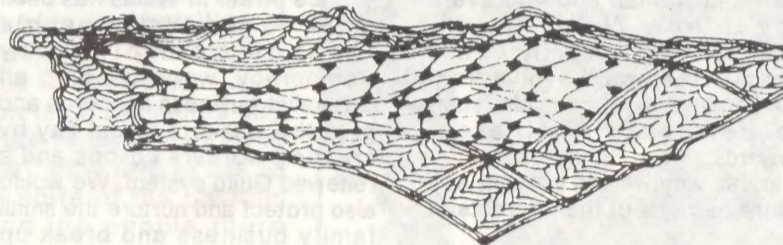

FfC Cymru thoroughly deserve their opportunity to use the back page of NFN to further consolidate and build the National Revolution in Wales. And we feel sure that they will take maximum advantage of it.

They completely sold out of a previous issue of NFN, which featured the Welsh flag on its masthead, within a week and had to order further copies of that issue to cover the demand.

Young Welsh activists show the way - The Third Way.

ABTA TRAVEL DELEGATES STAY AT HOME

DAVID EPSTEIN, the Director General, of the Association of British Travel Agents has found himself under intense fire from his members, yet again, this time from those who intended to go to the travel conference in occupied Palestine.

Stupidly, Epstein gave the go-ahead for details of the delegates to be sold to other members who wished to host conference events. Several of these documents have fallen into the wrong hands from ABTA's point of view for some agents have now changed their minds about attending.

The Campaign for Palestinian Rights has been busy contacting travel agents in recent weeks and has already received letters from travel firms who have assured us that they will not attend the pro-Israel event under any circumstances. One agent, from a Pickfords Travel shop in Kent, even went so far as to say that they even had no "intention of attending at another time".

Epstein was forced to admit to the national press recently that the campaign against the Jerusalem conference had cut the number of expected delegates by a massive third!

His latest blunder has no doubt played an important role in this process as the details included on the list included delegates home addresses and hotel registrations in Israel. This has naturally made Epstein an extremely unpopular man within travel circles.

Meanwhile, letters, stating disgust at ABTA's plans, from Third Positionist and pro-Palestinian groups from around the world are still arriving at their headquarters.

Pro-Zionist ABTA bosses were left in no doubt about the intensity of pro-Palestinian feeling in a recent letter received from the Spanish FSJ - the youth wing of the national syndicalist union C.O.N.S. "The most savage repression of the Palestinian nation; the genocide in Palestine and the annihilation of her encampments, the deportation, torture and misery is affirmed by your terroristic logic from which you base your economic and political power."

"OUR SUPPORT IS FOR THE PALESTINIAN PEOPLE - VIVA THE PALESTINE INSURRECTION - NO TO RELATIONSHIPS WITH THE STATE OF ISRAEL".

The FSJ is also involved in the 'Solidarity Committee for the Arab Cause' which has been busy leafletting and encouraging Palestinian support in Spain.

LEGAL

FIGHT ON AFTER YOU'VE GONE

One of the greatest regrets our supporters - and especially our oldest supporters - have is that they will not be able to carry on fighting for the Cause for ever!

In 1980 the financial survival of the movement was ensured by the bequest of one of our deceased members. That member was never to know what a vital part she played in the history of our movement but that does not detract from her contribution.

While thankfully the movements finances are on a much more secure footing, the movement is always in need of money to enable it to carry out activities necessary to development.

Make sure that you remember the National Front when you make out your Will. If you have already written your Will add a codicil for the benefit of the movement. If you are unsure about any of the legal technicalities in arranging this, please do not hesitate to contact our Legal Department.

WALES ARISE!

WALES is standing at the crossroads of her life. Which way she takes in the next decade will decide whether or not she survives as a nation.

The right-wing Tories would have us become a province - a mere appendage - of England, which they are half-way to doing by destroying the Welsh language, heritage and culture.

The left-wing Labour party would also have us become a province of England as they are blatantly anti-nationalist and as materialistic as the Tories.

So where does Wales turn? What political movement can lead us out of the Westminster quagmire? Plaid Cymru of course! For aren't they the Welsh nationalist party? Well, the answer is no, because Plaid Cymru have become the most international party in Wales and are more of a threat to the Welsh nation than either the Labour Party or the Tories!

Plaid Cymru claim they're nationalists and yet they are quite prepared to let their elected MP's go to Westminster, where so many anti-Welsh decisions have been made. Plaid Cymru's president, Dafydd Elis Thomas, has even said

"Nationalism is Evil". Is that the trait of a nationalist?

FINAL BATTLE

The truth is that this is the final battle for Wales. Throughout history, battles and wars have been waged to Keep Wales independent and even though this isn't an open battle, it is the most vital, for if we lose this, we have lost all that we live for - our Welsh nation!

The only nationalist movement that speaks for the people of Wales is Ffrynt Cenedlaethol Cymru/Wales National Front. We would make Wales an independent nation, while still keeping links with England, Scotland, Ulster and Eire in a federated British Isles - what is known as 'The British Family of Nations'.

We would not, of course, continue any links with the Westminster Tyranny and would set up Regional Peoples' Congresses and Committees throughout Wales, so that all the Welsh people could have their direct say in how their nation is run.

We do not believe in the dictatorship of the ballot box wherein one man or woman 'represents' thousands. We believe that everyone is important and that every Welsh man and woman should have a say in how Wales is run. Therefore the Committees and Congresses would evolve from the smallest level possible, such as a street or small area, upwards.

In this way we can prevent any future betrayal of the interests of the Welsh people to the Westminster tyranny by 'representatives' like Dafydd Elis Thomas.

Once power in Wales has been given to the Welsh people through participatory Democracy, we would stop all Capitalist business concerns and give the workers a real say by creating workers co-ops and a renewed Guild system. We would also protect and nurture the small family business and break up chain stores and hand them over to families. It is vital that businesses and the workplace are directly in the hands of the people to prevent individuals exploiting others for profit as happens now.

BEST TRADITIONS

We have a simple choice; stay part of an increasingly centralized Westminster State, run for the benefit of Big Business and the United States.

Or become a new, free and prosperous nation, in the best traditions of our Celtic forefathers. We would become an example, and a source of inspiration, to all other oppressed nations in Britain, in Europe and indeed throughout the World.

Wales must not turn to the Tory right not to the Labour left, for both lead to the death and destruction of our nation. Neither must we be distracted by the hypocrisy and lies that Plaid Cymru emit, for if we follow them, then we will lose our way and our nation will die impoverished, as part of a neo-Marxist international State.

Wales must take the 'Third Way' offered by Ffrynt Cenedlaethol/ National Front, then we shall regain our Self Respect, Family Honour and National Pride. Only then can we achieve the FfC/NF's maxim:

ULSTER NATION

ULSTER is fighting back in the propaganda war! The National Front of Ulster has just taken a major step forward. Our comrades there have launched their own monthly newspaper - Ulster Nation. This will concentrate mainly on agitation and organizational work needed to build the movement further in Ulster. It will also analyse events on the mainland and abroad from a national revolutionary position.

As a result of this most welcome advance, this page of NFN will no longer have to be devoted to Ulster. Events there will still be covered by this paper, but regular readers who want to maintain an in-depth understanding of our position, activities and advancement in Ulster are strongly urged to subscribe to Ulster Nation.

Ulster Nation will maintain a strong and consistent ideological line. Every article is based on the fundamental belief that all nations have the right to self-determination. Ulster Nation is not parochial, but relates Ulster's struggle to that of other suffering peoples throughout the world.

The first issue of Ulster Nation features an excellent article on security. The Provos are exposed as Marxist Gaelic Imperialists - their cause is as unjust as the methods they employ.

Other articles feature the environment and unemployment. The NF's stance on race is explained and support for the Palestinian struggle is expressed. Other items include a thoughtful editorial, a heritage section, letters page, merchandizing etc.

Subscription rates for Ulster Nation are as follows:

UK - 6 issues - £3
UK - 12 issues - £5
Eire and Europe - 12 issues - £8
Overseas - 12 issues - £14

All cheques/PO's/IMO's should be made payable to Ulster Nation and sent - by recorded delivery - to Ulster Nation, 134 Templemore Avenue, Belfast, Ulster, BT5 4FX.

NFN is delighted to see that its efforts over the last two years to establish a stable revolutionary alternative in Ulster have helped to build up a local organization sophisticated enough to take on this responsibility.

Our Ulster comrades still intend to distribute a substantial quantity of NF News in order to maintain total organizational and ideological unity. In return, we urge all NFN Supporters' Units to buy as many copies of Ulster Nation as they can sell (bulk rates on request from Ulster). And we ask readers who are particularly interested in Ulster to donate whatever they can afford direct to the latest addition to the National Front's armoury of persuasion - Ulster Nation.

AUTONOMY!

HELPING to build a self-sufficient National Front in Ulster was just the first stage of our programme to create a de-centralized publicity machine which will reflect both our ideology and the need to prepare for State repression.

With this page now free to concentrate on different subjects, we can move to the second stage. During this phase we will alternate between different subjects. We intend to do for the Wales National Front/ Ffrynt Cenedlaethol Cymru what we have done for the NF of Ulster, providing a platform for our activists there to publicize the NF attitude to local issues. Once they gain experience and build a solid circulation base, we will welcome the emergence of another sister paper, produced by and for the Welsh people.

To start with, the Welsh page will alternate with a page called Autonomy. This is intended to form a platform for the NF to develop publicity and recruitment campaigns in the workplace and in local communities. As the name implies, it will seek to agitate and educate and to show people how they themselves can take constructive action to build alternative popular institutions which will give them increasing control over their own lives.
